

Saucony® Introduces the ProGrid V2 Mule, a Modern Interpretation of an Iconic Silhouette

The launch offers a fresh expression of the ProGrid V2 aesthetic, blending running heritage with contemporary style.

August 1, 2026 – Saucony, a leading global performance running lifestyle brand, is launching a new silhouette for the upcoming season, the ProGrid V2 Mule. Merging Saucony's retro running heritage with contemporary style, the ProGrid V2 Mule delivers a refined expression of the ProGrid V2 aesthetic, offered in Trek/Black and Black colorways and launching August 1 at Saucony.com and select retailers.

"The ProGrid V2 Mule is an exploration of how iconic running silhouettes can evolve for today's lifestyle consumer," said Brian Moore, chief product officer at Saucony. "By combining premium suede and soft neoprene with the distinctive design language of the ProGrid V2, we've created a silhouette that feels both familiar and new. The backless construction brings a fresh perspective to the original design while preserving the visual identity and performance heritage that define the franchise."

ProGrid V2 Mule Features:

- Full-length EVA midsole for underfoot cushioning
- XT-600 midfoot rubber shank for added support
- Premium upper crafted from soft neoprene and rich suede

The ProGrid V2 Mule is available in unisex sizing 3.5-12, 13, 14 for a suggested retail price of $140 USD at www.saucony.com and select retailers. To find a Saucony retailer near you, call 800-365-4933 or visit here.
